DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10-24-2005 has been entered.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in United Kingdom on 06/09/1999. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the foreign application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by GB (1,122,466).

Art Unit: 1751

GB discloses an aviation lubricating composition comprising a complex ester derived from adipic acid, neopentyl glycol and pelargonic acid (page 3, lines 11-21).

As this reference teaches the instantly claimed compound it is considered anticipatory.

5. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by KR (9505692).
6. KR '692 discloses a lubricant composition by reacting neopentyl glycol and adipic acid and reacting the product with a caprylic acid (see abstract).
7. As this reference teaches all of the instantly required it is considered anticipatory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

11. Claims 19, 21-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP (0415778).

EP '778 discloses a refrigerating oil composition comprising an ester compound as the base oil wherein said base oil comprises an aliphatic polyhydric compound by reacting a neopentyl glycol (page 3, line 22-29); a monocarboxylic acid such as caprylic acid or pelargonic acid; and a dicarboxylic acid such as adipic (page 3, lines 43-58). EP '778 teaches that the composition has a viscosity at 100 degrees Celsius in the range of 1-20 cst (page 3, lines 10-14). EP '778 further teaches that said composition comprises mineral oil (page 5, lines 15-16) and additional additives such as antioxidants, extreme pressure additives, oiliness improving agents, defoaming agents and metal deactivators (page 5, lines 28-49).

EP '778 does not teach with sufficient specificity to anticipate the claims, however, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the components to specifically teach the complex ester and additives of the claimed invention since EP '778 teach the esters, acids and additives are well known in the lubricating art.
